ANARCHIST'S MAIL EXPOSED

INSANE JEALOUSY KILLS ANOTHER WOMAN

DEPORTING AGITATOR VASILEFF INVOLVES TWO CONTINENTS

Vasileff, or Vasilleff, for there appears to be two ways of spelling the name of the Russian agitator who has done his best to dissatisfy the immigrants from Siberia with conditions here, may possibly develop into an international proposition.

That he is to be deported as an anarchist seems certain, for U. S. District Attorney Breckons is in correspondence with U. S. Attorney General Wickersham in the matter and the Department of Justice is likely to communicate with the Russian government, advising deportation.

Whatever the method, Breckons has for some time been proving himself a terror to evil doers, nearly always "getting his man." It is stated, however, in circles more or less private where there seems to be much interest taken in the Russian immigrants, and where there possibly exists an anarchistic sympathy with Vasileff's ideas, that the New York Russian editor and others of certain agitational influence in the eastern states, identified fraternally with Russian secret organizations, are taking up the methods of prosecution of Russian leaders in Hawaii and will make them the subject of a "letter" from the Russian government to the United States.

Vasileff, though he wilted before Breckons during examination yesterday, still poses as a martyr and claims that he will be protected. The promise that he will be sent back to Russia hits him hardest. He is evidently afraid. Perhaps he left Russia because he had to.

Breckons had Vasileff before the Federal grand jury, and it is the recommendation of that body that he be treated as an anarchist, as a dangerous anarchist, and that he be sent from the country.

Into Breckons' hands has come a number of letters intended for or received by Vasileff. This surprised the agitator. Vasileff asked Breckons where he got the letters. Breckons replied that it was none of his business.

Breckons states that he did not intercept any letters in the mail and that he never did anything of the kind in his life. Breckons made this statement in reply to the direct question, it having been alleged that Breckons must have been supplied with the letters by the postal authorities. This Breckons denies.

Therefore the only way in which the letters could have been procured would be either through some man who had Vasileff's correspondence and played him traitor, or the prison authorities seized the manuscripts. If they were not intercepted in the mail, and Vasileff did not surrender them, then they must have been taken from him by an officer or a traitor. While Vasileff's actions since arrival here have been anarchistic, there is nothing in the following letters received to prove him an anarchist, unless through the inference that he must be an anarchist if his correspondents are anarchists. But letters or no letters, Vasileff is a dangerous man, and perhaps crazy.

The letters are as follows:

New York, May 16, 1910.

Friend Vasileff: From the general conference of the labor organization of the city of New York. I ask you as soon as possible to notify us whether you formed a committee in Honolulu. If you formed

KALUNA MURDERS YOUNG MISTRESS

Julia Koloulu, a two--one year old Hawaiian woman was shot to death today by her male companion, Kaluna, whose motive appears to have been insane jealousy, his crime following within twenty-four hours on the double tragedy of yesterday morning when Aki shot his young wife, through jealousy, and then took his own life.

A telephone message was received at the police station from near the Nuuanu dam, the fight and shooting occurring in the house of the murderer, Kaluna, near the gatehouse on the makai road. A woman neighbor heard screams and phoned for the officers, the wagon responding. The shots were not fired until the patrol wagon was approaching.

such a committee, what came of it? What rules did the committee adopt? Has there been a meeting of the committee, or, if not, will there be one? In short, I ask you that you write as soon as possible everything concerning your matters over there, and to give us a daily account of everything that is going on. The minutes of your meetings would be highly interesting to us. The copies of contracts which you made with the agents, and other documents of the people who are now poor, should be forwarded to us.

From this side we can tell you that our conference represents all the Russian labor organizations in New York. I can further say that this conference is doing everything in its power and will do all possible to assist you with both financial and moral support.

And therefore, my friend, we hope you will not hesitate to keep us fully posted from Honolulu as to what is going on.

Each letter must be numbered, in order that proper reference may be made to it in future. The letters to us should be addressed to "Russian Voice," care of Rode, treasurer of the conference.

With friendly regards,

Secretary of the Conference,
A. STOCKLITZY.

General Conference of Russian Labor Organization of N. Y.

May dear Russian Friends:—I will do everything which I can. Your matter is already in Washington in the hands of the Attorney-General. They have already commenced an investigation of the plantation owners. The English newspapers are already publishing articles about your life. Write everything fully. I want to publish it. I am entirely at your disposal in this matter. Already we have called meetings of our people in New York to discuss the matter. I have written about you to Russia. Stand pat. We will start in to secure money for you and you will commence to receive it soon.

If you know some socialist you go to him with a request that he will find for you a lawyer who will act without charge.

With sincere regards, I am yours,

(Signed) IVAN OKUNZOFF.

May 11, 1910.

New York, May 10, 1910.

My Friend Vasileff:—I received from Ivan Okunzoff your letter about the bad condition of the life of the Russian laborers in the Hawaiian Islands. The proceedings of the general conference are being published in all American newspapers of every nationality, and you will find them in No. 137 of the "Russian Voice."

We are, as expeditiously as possible, doing everything we can to air and make public the entire matter. As soon as we can do so, we will improve your conditions in Hawaii. The results of the conference called shows that we are doing so. The conference asks you to keep us as fully posted as possible about conditions. Do you need a lawyer? If you do, how much money will be necessary? Who will be the committee which will look after the expenditure of the money? Let us know everything that happens and write to this address:—

Treasurer of the Conference, A. Rode, care of "Russian Voice," 1-2-3 Cooper Square, cor. 4th street, New York.

By order of the conference,

(Signed) A. STOCKLITZY.

At the present time I am in the lumber mill. The blessing of God unto you. Please come over to me, and please bring with you some woman, a widow. One man here wants to get married. He is a store keeper from Harbin. His nationality is Gruzian. His name is I. Aloverov.

I now say goodbye, and await your early reply to my request.

(Sgd.) I. ALOVEROV.
